Mr. Dunlap:

The United States plans to attend the teleconference on the parties' request to enlarge the discovery deadlines that is noticed below, but does not expect to seek leave to participate in it. If the Special Master prefers to be notified in a particular manner whether or not the United States plans to attend future teleconferences that are scheduled on discrete matters, please let me know. Thank you.

Counsel:

The Special Master is unavailable due to conflicts on the afternoon of Friday, October 30. However, the Special Master can be available on Monday, Nov. 2, at 10:00 a.m. EST. The conference will be rescheduled for that time, unless the parties promptly notify us of unavoidable conflicts.

Mr. Dunlap:

Thank you for your notice concerning the teleconference. Unfortunately, I have a long-scheduled hearing in another matter at the same time on Friday morning. Would it be possible to hold this teleconference early Friday afternoon instead? I have inquired of counsel for Florida and they can be available Friday afternoon as well.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,
Craig Primis
Counsel for Georgia
