

20-827 UNITED STATES V. ZUBAYDAH

DECISION BELOW: 938 F.3d 1123

LOWER COURT CASE NUMBER: 18-35218

QUESTION PRESENTED:

Whether the court of appeals erred when it rejected the United States' assertion of the state-secrets privilege based on the court's own assessment of potential harms to the national security, and required discovery to proceed further under 28 U.S.C. 1782(a) against former Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) contractors on matters concerning alleged clandestine CIA activities.

CERT. GRANTED 4/26/2021